Note:

1. Products are available in Brick variants and Cladding variants.
2. Being a natural product, clay brick is bound to have minor variations in shade, texture and sizes, these variations are the character of facing bricks and not to be seen as a problem. Colors and textures of the actual product may differ from this brochure due to the photographic and printing limitations. We recommend you to make the final selection of bricks at your nearest showrooms in physical form.
3. Please scan the QR code below to know the brick specification.
